INTRODUCTION

With Halloween around the corner, we wish to briefly discuss the occult world. This is the world which touches - to a greater or lesser extent - all of the so called "secret societies" that proliferate this planet.

It is important for you to know that these things exist, that their practitioners have "powers" which can affect you and that you can be influenced or even injured by subtle energies unless you at least have some knowledge about these "hidden" areas of knowledge.

HALLOWEEN

Halloween is not just a fun kiddy holiday. It is one of the four main pagan Sabbats or holy days celebrated around the world by initiates in various occult groups. Halloween is the day when, it is said, it is the easiest for sensitive people to contact departed (dead) friends and relatives. This is its true meaning. Pagan traditions predate essentially all conventional religions we recognize today and they exist today just as they have in the past.

However, today they are generally secret and members do not talk about these things to non initiated outsiders. This is necessary today mainly for self protection.

However, much general knowledge is available on the internet if you are interested in going deeper into this area.

BELTANE

Beltane is the Sabbat 180 degrees from Halloween and could be considered more important. It is celebrated on May 1st. and is the pagan fertility ritual. On Halloween, you talk to the dead and on Beltane you offer the dead an opportunity to come back into this world by creating new bodies. Beltane rituals center around the "May Pole" (a phallic symbol) and, classically, no female can refuse a man during this ritual. Consequently, some women will become pregnant and, it is said, children born as a result of Beltane have their last name prefixed with "Fitz". So, for example, if their name was, say, "Morris", it is changed to "Fitzmorris" and this new name continues throughout future time.

May 1st. is celebrated in many countries and different countries give different reasons for the celebration. However, they generally avoid saying the word "Beltane".

CLASSIC PAGAN BASICS

Pagan rituals are based upon astrology and especially on the seasons of the year. They also consider something called "precession of the equinoxes" which determines what "Age" we are presently in. We are in the Age of Pisces now and the following Age which will begin around the year 2100 will be the Age of Aquarius. The headpiece the Pope wears symbolizes the open mouth of a fish because the symbol for Pisces is the fish. Before industrialization, it was very important to know when to plant and harvest crops because your survival depended upon that knowledge. Also, your children would have a much better chance of survival if they were born in the Spring instead of the dead of Winter. Most birds and animals do this automatically by instinct but people seem to need some external guidance. So, the Pagan Sabbats were very important in previous times. You can look up the Pagan calendar which includes all major and minor Sabbats on the internet.

TANTRA YOGA

Tantra yoga is essentially extinct today because people have devolved and no longer have the concentration to practice it correctly. "Karezza" is one name for a form of tantra yoga. Tantra yoga is a method of (subtle) energy raising. It is based upon sex. To perform this technique, a man and woman spend the night together - sexually joined - but neither one climaxes. Climax releases the energy. The purpose of this yoga is to create the sex energy but to not allow it to "escape" so as to increase your personal "powers".

PAGAN TANTRA

rituals you want to have normal sex with lots of different partners during a short period. During classic sex, your body creates several chemicals which make you feel real good. The desire for this, of course, is the motivation to want sex. Normally, with a single partner, a man cannot just have constant sex. However, given a group of "strange" partners, this can be possible. Since each sex act releases another "fix" of "sex drugs", eventually you enter an altered state of consciousness as you are "maxed out" on these chemicals. This is the goal of Pagan style tantra.

REAL MAGIC

To perform real magic you must be Spiritually sophisticated enough to reach the Causal Plane - also called "the plane of forces". You bring whatever you want to this place with your imagination and - by doing this - you can cause it to materialize on the Physical plane. Administrators are free to use the Causal Plane as needed depending upon their assignments. Ordinary people can also learn how to do this but are subject to penalties for abuse of this power. Real magicians, consequently, will normally do "small" things which will demonstrate their abilities but do no real harm to anything.

Black Magicians do whatever they please as suits their fancy - until they are captured by the Galactic Police and sentenced to isolation in some place where they can cause no more harm.

Artificial Intelligence devices - such as the device at Montauk in use in the 1980's - can also access the Causal Plane. You can research information about the Montauk Project both on the internet and free you tube videos if interested.

SEX MAGIC

Sex magic - as you might guess - involves sex. It consists of channeling the energy produced by sex to cast some spell or have some other subtle effect. Sex magic - and its partner, Blood magic, are the two main categories of Magic.

BLOOD MAGIC

Blood magic, logically, somehow involves blood. This could be as simple as buying a piece of meat from a store. However, higher levels of blood magic would involve "sacrificing" some animal or even another human being.

SECRET CATHOLIC RITUALS

Some of the most advanced (and also the most diabolical) blood magic is reportedly routinely practiced by the Catholic Church at the Vatican [2]. Young boys actually sign a "contract" to be sacrificed. Under the terms of this contract they are provided with access to all the sex they want for one year. However, when the year of "unending pleasure" ends, they are sacrificed in rituals which take place constantly inside the secrecy of the Vatican. This is how these people increase their psychic powers. The year of sex makes sure the victims are high in energy which will be "absorbed" by those attending the ritual when they are killed.

Since the power of the Catholic Church comes from the "dark side", they cannot access the essentially infinite power from the Creator. So, they must steal energy from innocent people to function.

SECRET MASONIC RITUALS

Masonic groups also use various magic techniques. Reportedly, the Masons were originally created by the Catholic Church but are said to have gradually drifted away and have established an autonomy of their own. One technique reportedly used by Masons involves somehow harnessing the emotional energy generated by people watching an emotionally stimulating movie like, for example, "Gone With the Wind" and then somehow directing this energy against a victim with the intent to kill him.

THE ILLUMINATI

The upper level of magic, witchcraft, sorcery and the like is said to be the secret group known as the "Illuminati". Reportedly, Hillary Clinton's "rating" in this group is said to be "Level Six Illuminati Witch" [1]. However, the specific definition of just what this means is not given. Above the 33rd. degree, Masons are said to merge into the Illuminati, however, since they are a secret society, this cannot be confirmed. We do know with reasonable certainty that everyone in the NSA, CIA, and NASA is a Mason and that the only two US Presidents who were not Masons - Lincoln and Kennedy - were assassinated. Old videos seem to show Trump giving one of the secret Masonic handshakes so we assume he is a Mason too.
