INTRODUCTION

We want to briefly outline the world you live in because the actual world has no relationship to anything you have been led to believe. Over the past hundred years or more, the world has gradually changed. This process was both slow and methodical as well as secret. Some people - who, of course, were discredited - noticed these things, however most people were totally oblivious and continued to live as if nothing had changed.

CURRENT EPOCH ORIGINAL FORMAT

The Earth has been here for a good while and has passed through many epochs. We sometimes get glimpses of past epochs but no hard facts. However, we can pretty much detail the present epoch. The Vatican archives contain an essentially complete history of Earth from Babylon onwards. Of course, it is secret and you can't see it. It is reserved for the eyes of the chosen elite. Originally, places like Egypt, Rome and Greece used an open knowledge system. Everyone could access the libraries and the desire for knowledge was encouraged.

However, things changed. When the Priestcraft came to control the world by fear, knowledge was restricted. This began a dark period where most people could not read or write. The Priestcraft, however, could. Their historical records - like the Vatican archives of today - were secret and guarded. Ordinary people - slaves - could not access knowledge and anyone who disagreed with the official narratives of the church were killed. The full significance of the classic phrase "knowledge is power" was realized.

This system eventually evolved into the present information control system of "need to know" and security clearances. Everyone just accepts this stuff now and, for some reason, do not realize that this is intellectual slavery and that they are no longer free but have become "pawns in the game" who will live out their short lives in a state of vacant contentment.

Underground Places

There have always been natural underground places such as caves and catacombs. People discovered these places and used them for safety from the elements as well as secret hide-a-ways. Also, there are created underground places. This is where the legitimate advanced life forms of this planet live. They were here before humans existed and are briefly mentioned in the Christian Bible in the phrase "there were giants in the Earth at that time and also afterward..." They will still be here when humans are extinct. Admiral Bird [1] accidentally discovered one of the entrances in Antarctica years ago.

INFLUENCE OF ET'S

Significant changes began around 1913 when contact was first made with so called "ET's". ET's have always visited Earth periodically. They were regular visitors to the American Indians for many years. The Indians called them the "Sky People". They had a friendly relationship and no one "freaked out" because life forms from other planets would stop by from time to time. Today, of course, we deny their existence although they walk among us and we work with them.

It appears that many off world visitors had a genuine desire to help humanity advance. They failed to realize the inherent sinister nature of the humans and believed the advanced technology they shared would be used freely to improve humanity. Of course, that was a serious mistake. The "elite" took the technology - kept it secret from the masses - and used it to enslave them and force them to live out their lives one hundred years or so in the past using obsolete technologies.

So, let's go through a brief list of the technologies the elite now enjoy that you have no knowledge even exist:

1. The Germans had a working "flying saucer" in 1920 and went to the Moon. [2]
2. Free energy was completely perfected by 1955 making oil, coal and nuclear energy obsolete (not to mention the damage to the environment that continued use of these out of date technologies cause). [3]
3. Quantum Computers have existed since the 1960's. Your "toy" computer is obsolete junk. Many universities have these machines and some have more than one. These universities are the "gateway universities" where young kids are observed to see if they are a candidate for recruitment into the "secret government". Those chosen are sworn to secrecy and allowed to know about these things and use them.
4. Anti-gravity technology is completely perfected. [3]
5. Methods of instant transport from planet to planet using so called "jump rooms" is in current use. [4]
6. Effective cures for all known diseases exist and techniques to live physically forever have been perfected.

So, why continue to build and use obsolete equipment?

Well, the best answer appears to be to deliberately make day to day life so difficult and time consuming that you have no free time to think about things going on in the world which could result in learning about stuff the government does not want you to know as they methodically complete their master plan for your future.

MASTER PLAN FOR UNDERWORLD

Over a hundred years ago, someone hatched a plan for a second Earth which would be constructed underground. Knowledge of this second Earth would only be known to the elite. Here, outside of the view of the ordinary people, they would be free to do anything they pleased.

You can imagine the manpower required to complete such a massive project. Millions of workers would be needed. The workers were persuaded to keep silent by convincing them that they would get to live in this new Earth. Of course, it was a lie. When no longer needed, the workers were quietly killed. Dead men tell no tales. Consequently, the clueless surface dwellers went about their miserable lives and never knew any of this.

STRUCTURE OF THE UNDERWORLD

The underworld is global. There are actually full size cities where people live as well as various types of installations where work is performed. The various components of the underworld are linked by transport tubes housing high speed mag-lift trains. The tubes are kept at near vacuum to increase the speed of the trains. Once you get into the underworld, you can travel anywhere on the planet. You might guess that a tremendous amount of energy is required to power all this. However, remember that free energy was perfected back in the 1950's [3] so electrical power is no problem. Also, speaking of "free", no money is in use in the underworld and anyone with access gets whatever they need for free.

There are no political boundaries in the underworld. There is only one world. Also, the various ET civilizations we cooperate with are free to move about as they please. All the elite know the truth about them so no one is surprised.

In addition to free energy technology, the underworld can also access geothermal energy.

For at least the last forty years, the underworld has been stockpiling food. The food supply is gradually rotated and upgraded. Older supplies are used to feed the surface slaves and replaced with fresh supplies.

ABOLITION OF DISCRETE COUNTRIES

Originally, there were discrete countries on the surface of the Earth. They were culturally unique, had unique languages, laws and customs. From casual observation, you would believe they still do and nothing has changed. However, in reality, they no longer exist. Over time, the previously independent countries have been quietly "hollowed out from the inside". Actually, they are not even known as countries by the elite insiders. Instead, they are called "Strategic Hamlets". The surface slaves living in a country still believe as they always did. However, the leadership, which has either been converted or replaced to conform to the "new world" philosophy, all know the truth.

THE WORLD GOVERNMENT

The World Government exists underground and directs the activities of the various surface "strategic hamlets". Everything is choreographed, coordinated and controlled from underground. People (surface slaves) occasionally notice that politicians essentially never do whatever they promised and that the actions of local "governments" do not contribute to the well being of the citizens. Actually, it appears that they want to deliberately hurt them and make them as miserable and uncomfortable as possible. It appears that way because it actually is that way. Unless you can take care of yourself, you will be left in the gutter to starve and die. You can complain and protest all you want, however no one is listening and the violent, sociopathic, militarized police are ready to crush you if you get out of line.

There is and will continue to be constant war, disease, poverty (austerity) and death. You will know no peace.

NOTIFICATION OF THE GEORGIA GUIDESTONE

If you have not done so, you should read the commandments of the Georgia Guidestone. This is a blueprint for your future. You might want to pay particular attention to commandment one which specifies that only five hundred million people are to be allowed to live on this planet. Chances are you are not one of them.

The complete list of commandments are:

1. Maintain humanity under 500,000,000 in perpetual balance with nature.
2. Guide reproduction wisely — improving fitness and diversity.
3. Unite humanity with a living new language.
4. Rule passion — faith — tradition — and all things with tempered reason.
5. Protect people and nations with fair laws and just courts.
6. Let all nations rule internally resolving external disputes in a world court.
7. Avoid petty laws and useless officials.
8. Balance personal rights with social duties.
9. Prize truth — beauty — love — seeking harmony with the infinite.
10. Be not a cancer on the earth — Leave room for nature — Leave room for nature.

There are many internet references to the Georgia Guidestone and it would be in your interest to check them out.

AGENDA 2030

Agenda 2030 is the United Nations (remember, there are no independent nations anymore) official plan for implementing the commandments of the Georgia Guidestone. Much of it is public and you can find lots of articles concerning Agenda 2030 on the internet. The year 2030 is the scheduled completion date for the Agenda. This is only ten years away.

EXTERMINATION OF HUMANITY

Before the government killed him, retired FBI Special Agent Ted Gunderson [5] gave out the population total allotted to the United States. It is only twenty million. Everyone else is to be killed. In the US, the twenty million selected to survive have been given what here is called "a ticket". If you have one, you will be notified when it is time to go into the underworld. It is actually quite similar to the fiction scenario in the movie "2012" [6]. Other countries have different quotas and different names for their access passes.

Once all the chosen people are safely underground, the people remaining on the surface will be killed. From the available evidence, it appears the United States intends to use bioweapons to eliminate the unwanted people. This conclusion is based on the fact that the main bioweapons lab at Ft. Detrick, MD, is working overtime to create and manufacture unique bioweapons as we speak. The US is a signatory to the bioweapons treaty and is theoretically forbidden to make such weapons. However, they found a loophole in the treaty. They claim the treaty only applies to "offensive" bioweapons and what they are doing is creating bioweapons for "defense" so they can test them and find antidotes "just in case" some other country "just happens" to invent the exact same weapon.

Once the surface has been "cleansed" of unwanted people, it will be time to initiate the so called "New World Order".

POLE SHIFT AND NEW ICE AGE

This new world idea is not new. It is highly unlikely that when it was planned the scientists knew about the impending pole shift. Every so often the poles do change location. However, this event happens so seldom that our available historical records show no mention of such an event. Geologists know about this because of evidence found in deep core samples. Unfortunately, it seems that pole shifts are followed by an ice age which would make life on the surface of the planet almost impossible and would also last a good while. A few years ago, the poles began to shift. The first year was very slight but the degree of shift increased with each passing year. The projected new North Pole will be in Easter Island once the process completes. It will likely remain there for a significant length of time. Due to the length of time between one shift and the next, it would likely be impossible to predict the next shift or even know if the duration between shifts is the same or random.

Obviously, this event was not in the New World Order plan when it was first conceived. Satellites can compensate for this, however natural life forms which navigate by sensing the magnetic field of the Earth would not be so lucky and would certainly be confused if not rendered extinct.

So, it appears it will be a while before the "chosen people" living comfortably underground will be able to contemplate any sort of new life on the surface of the planet. Also, it is doubtful that the surface land masses will bear any resemblance to what they are today.

CREATING THE "NEW WORLD"

The future surface "New World" is likely to resemble Al Bielek's world of the 2700's [4]. In that world, which also had a stabilized population of five hundred million, people were confined to ghettos which were comfortable but which left an insignificant footprint on the surface compared to the total available land. This configuration complies with Georgia Guidestone commandment number ten as well as commandment one.
